INSTRUMENTOS DEL TIEMPO DESDE LA CABINA A LA MUÑECA

Los relojes Bell & Ross cumplen cuatro principios básicos: legibilidad, funcionalidad, fiabilidad y precisión.

Cada detalle tiene su propósito, su función. Esta precisión técnica se expresa a través de líneas puras y una elegancia atemporal.

Inspirada en la historia de la aviación y las especificaciones militares que la acompañan, Bell & Ross sigue la gran tradición relojera suiza para crear relojes perfectamente adaptados al uso profesional. Cada maestro relojero se rige por cuatro principios fundamentales: legibilidad, funcionalidad, precisión y fiabilidad, para asegurar que lo esencial nunca se vea comprometido por lo superfluo. Cada reloj Bell & Ross está construido en torno a un mecanismo altamente complejo y preciso que, día tras día, participa en la conquista del cielo, la tierra y el mar.

VINTAGE 126 SPORT HERITAGE & FLYBACK

El BR 126 Sport Heritage se convirtió en la herramienta ideal para pilotos y viajeros de largo recorrido, con su función Flyback que permite reiniciar el cronómetro al instante. Su función GMT marca un segundo huso horario, esencial para quienes cruzan fronteras sin perder el ritmo. Limitado a solo 500 ejemplares, este reloj cuenta con movimiento mecánico de carga automática, cronógrafo con totalizadores de 60 segundos y 60 minutos, y una ventana de fecha a las 4:30. Además, su escala taquimétrica ofrece mediciones precisas de velocidad, convirtiéndolo en un compañero infalible para quienes desafían al tiempo.

LA TRADICIÓN RELOJERA

De Montblanc se remonta a 1858, cuando Charles-Yvan Robert fundó un taller de relojería en Villeret, en las montañas suizas del Jura. Aunque en ese momento no lo supiera, ese hecho marcaría el inicio de la histórica era Minerva.
